

TREASURES FOR LIFE:
BECKY AND THE GREAT OUTDOORS

Are we there yet?

Written by Esther Eio
Illustrated by Chloe Chang

“Camping, here we come!” squealed Becky.
Everyone in the Bunny family was busy.

I can't wait to find some treasure!

Copyright © 2022 Families for Life Council

Designed and produced by Armour Publishing
Block 1003 Bukit Merah Central #02-07 Singapore 159836
Email : enquiries@armourpublishing.com
Website : www.armourpublishing.com

First published 2022

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system or transmitted, in any form by any means,
electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording or otherwise,
without the prior permission of the copyrights owner.

Printed in Singapore

ISBN 978-981-5060-00-3 (Paperback)
ISBN 978-981-5060-24-9 (PDF)

“Are we there yet?” Becky asked.

“We are almost at Grandpa and Grandma’s place,” Big Brother replied.

Why do we have to ask Grandpa and Grandma along?

Because we care for them.

Grandma and Grandpa were waiting excitedly.

They hopped right into the car.

Why do we have to care?

PROMPT: How do you feel when your grandparents are around? Why do you feel so?

“Are we there yet?” asked Becky.
“Soon,” said Mum as she got out to buy some ice.

They heard a loud cry. A little raccoon was looking for her mum.

We will wait
with you.

Why do we have to care?

PROMPT: Have you ever been lost?
What did you wish for then?

Oh no, there was a traffic jam! A car had broken down.

"I will help. That will help to clear the traffic jam," Dad said.

"Can't we let the rhinoceros help?" Becky asked unhappily.

"When we see or hear someone in need, we can care," Dad replied.

“Finally, we are here,” said Becky, sulking.

Dad and Mum moved the heavy bags.
Big Brother and Little Brother set up the tents.

“I will come back before it is dark,”
Becky said as she took her kayak and went off into the water.

Be careful!

A beautiful bird flew past.
Becky followed the bird into a mysterious forest.
What interesting sights she saw!

Ants building a bridge to help one another.

Monkeys feeding and protecting their children.

PROMPT: Briefly discuss the amazing ways animals in the wild care for each other and how it is natural for us to care for others too.

It started to get dark. It was hard to find any treasure.

“If only we had not stopped to care for others!” Becky complained aloud.

A tree answered, “We should care when we see or hear someone in need.”

“I care by giving clean air to this forest. Many animals make me their home. Right now, I am giving you shade,” said the tree.

The tree scribbled on a leaf and gave it to Becky.

You are a tree.
You stand here all the time. How do you show care?

HOME
SWEET
HOME

We see, we hear,

we care.

Becky took the leaf and said goodbye.
She was not sure if the tree was right.

“Oh no, my kayak! How do I get back?”
exclaimed Becky.

Help! Help!
Can someone hear me?

Becky panicked. She was not a good swimmer.

“I’m scared. Will someone please help me?” Becky said with tears in her eyes.

Just then, an Otter family pushed the kayak towards Becky.

Becky let out a big “Thank you!”

Big Sister otter said, “We saw and heard you cry. We want to care.”

“We see, we hear,
we care.”

PROMPT: Has someone helped you or have you helped someone before?
How did that feel?

The Otter family swam beside Becky.

The beautiful bird guided Becky back to the campsite.

When she returned, Becky exclaimed, "Everyone, come and see the friends who helped me!"

The Bunny family thanked them and waved goodbye.

These friends showed care and concern for me!

PROMPT: How do you think Becky feels now?

That night, Becky apologised, “I’m sorry for sulking earlier. I thought we should only care about ourselves. But when others showed care and concern for me, I was so happy.”

Mum said, “When we see or hear someone in need and we show we care, we are like little heroes.”

Dad continued, “Caring for others makes us better at loving our family too.”

“Yes! Let’s be the Big-Hearted Bunnies!” Big Brother laughed.

“We felt your care and concern when you invited us on this trip. It made us very happy,” Grandma said with a smile.

“Yes, you are our little heroes,” Grandpa added.

I was feeling lonely until I saw all of you.

We will ask you to join us more often.

Right then, Becky heard the tune of a birthday song coming from a nearby tent.

Becky took her ukulele and joined them in song. How thoughtful of Becky!

The two families sang loudly.

PROMPT: Have you ever done something nice for someone because you cared about them?

Becky started off the trip wanting to find some treasure. In the end, she found the treasure of Care and Concern.

It was a treasure that she would always cherish.

Are you there yet?

PROMPT: Are you there yet? Are you willing to care for others when you see or hear that they need help?

The journey to the campsite was a long one, and Becky was starting to get impatient. Upon arrival, Becky immediately sets off to find some treasure. Wandering on her own, she soon discovers the treasure of Care and Concern.

About Treasures for Life

With each treasure discovered by the Treasure Seekers, they learn something precious about their family! Little do they know, the greatest treasure that they have for life is family.

ISBN 978-981-5060-24-9

9 789815 060249